

KINGDOM COME

HEAVEN, HERE AND NOW

What if you could live heaven today, right here on earth? Explore throughout the Scriptures how the Kingdom of God manifests in the everyday, transforming decisions, relationships, and opportunities. Learn to walk under His government, experience His power, and be part of His purpose, living the reality of His Kingdom every day and for eternity.

Are you ready for a personal and close experience with our Lord?

LET'S BEGIN THIS 21-DAY JOURNEY TOGETHER!

Bridge City
CHURCH

PART I

WHAT IS THE KINGDOM OF GOD AND WHERE IS IT?

The concept of the Kingdom of God is not new; its roots are deeply sown since the Old Testament. Before the arrival of Christ, the prophets, kings, and psalmists already dreamed of God's sovereign rule. In this first part, we will explore some biblical foundations to understand the nature and scope of this Kingdom, discovering how God established His dominion over all creation and prepared His people for its final manifestation.

DAY 1

AN ETERNAL KINGDOM

Verse of the Day:

"After this time had passed, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up to heaven. My sanity returned, and I praised and worshiped the Most High and honored the one who lives forever. His rule is everlasting, and his kingdom is eternal. All the people of the earth are nothing compared to him. He does as he pleases among the angels of heaven and among the people of the earth. No one can stop him or say to him, 'What do you mean by doing these things?'" — Daniel 4:34–35 (NLT)

REFLECTION:

From the beginning, the Bible reveals God as the sovereign King over all creation. King Nebuchadnezzar, after being humbled, recognizes something that defines the nature of the Kingdom of God: it is an eternal, invincible kingdom, superior to any human authority. The Kingdom does not depend on circumstances, nations, or human wills; it exists because God reigns from forever to forever. This truth places us in the correct perspective: we are not trying to build our own kingdom, but to align ourselves with the Kingdom that already governs everything. When we understand the eternity and sovereignty of the Kingdom, our faith stabilizes amidst uncertainty. It is not about whether God is in control, but whether we are submitting our lives to His reign.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

Today, identify one area of your life where you feel you need to be in control. Dedicate five minutes to surrender that area to God in prayer, trusting in His ultimate authority.

PRAYER:

Lord, teach me to live aware of Your eternal Kingdom and help me surrender every area of my life to Your sovereignty. Be in control of everything I face today. Amen.

DAY 2

THE CREATOR KING

Verse of the day:

"In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth. Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters. And God said, "Let there be light," and there was light." — Genesis 1:1-3 (NIV)

REFLECTION:

Before anything existed, God was already reigning. Creation not only shows His power, but His authority to order, separate, fill, and give purpose. The Kingdom of God manifests from Genesis as a divine order that overcomes chaos. Where God speaks, chaos recedes and life begins to sprout. This teaches us that the Kingdom is not just a physical place, but the environment where God governs and His word defines reality. In our lives, when we allow His voice to be the one that orders our decisions, emotions, and priorities, we experience the life and purpose that flow from the Kingdom.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

Upon waking up, observe one aspect of your surroundings that feels chaotic. Dedicate five minutes to pray, asking God to bring order and clarity to that area of your life, speaking first to your mind and heart to guide you on what steps and decisions to take regarding it.

PRAYER:

Creator God, order my life and bring clarity where there is confusion.
May Your voice guide every decision and may my heart remain aligned with the purpose of Your perfect Kingdom. Amen.

DAY 3

BLESSING AND PURPOSE

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"Now the Lord said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. And I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and him who dishonors you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.'" — Genesis 12:1-3 (ESV)

REFLECTION:

God calls Abram with a transcendent purpose: to be the origin of a great nation and the channel of His blessing for all the families of the earth. With this promise recorded in the Old Testament, God establishes a lineage, the people of Israel, to begin establishing His Kingdom from there. The Kingdom of God has always had a global missionary purpose. The blessing we receive is not to be hoarded, but to participate in His plan. Today, this calling extends to us, those who share the faith of Abram. We are called to trust, step out of our comfort zone, and obey in order to transform our environment with God's blessing.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

In the morning, make a list of three people around you whom you can bless today. During the day, find a moment to communicate words of encouragement, support, or gratitude to them.

PRAYER:

Lord, use me as a channel for Your blessing.
Help me to bless others with generosity and to actively participate in the purpose of Your Kingdom every day. Amen.

DAY 4

A KINGDOM OF HOLINESS AND JUSTICE

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine, you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation."

— Exodus 19:5-6a (NIV)

REFLECTION:

God sets Israel apart as a "kingdom of priests and a holy nation," showing that His Kingdom is based on holiness, justice, and purpose. It was not just a call to follow rules, but to represent God to the nations through a distinct lifestyle. The Kingdom of God has always been counter-cultural: while the world exalts power, God exalts holiness; while the world seeks privileges, God seeks obedience. Being part of the Kingdom means living under the values of the King.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

During a meal, reflect on a recent decision you could have handled in a more holy and just way. Write down a practical commitment to correct or improve that attitude as soon as possible.

PRAYER:

Father, teach me to live with holiness and justice, reflecting Your Kingdom in every action and decision, so that others may see Your character and love through me. Amen.

DAY 5

HE REIGNS WITH SOVEREIGNTY AND WISDOM

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"The Lord has established his throne in the heavens, and his kingdom rules over all."

— Psalm 103:19 (ESV)

REFLECTION:

The psalmist declares that God established His throne in heaven and that His Kingdom rules over all. This affirmation teaches us that the Kingdom is founded on God's perfect wisdom and sovereignty. Although we often do not understand what He is doing, His reign is good, just, and full of mercy. Recognizing this gives us rest: we do not carry the weight of the universe on our shoulders. He governs, He knows, He directs. We can trust in His infinite wisdom, His capacity to control everything, and His knowledge to guide our lives: from the smallest details to what we cannot see or comprehend.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

Today, in a quiet moment, write down three situations where you need to trust God's wisdom and sovereignty above your own understanding. Pray over each one of them and ask Him, in faith, to give you His wisdom for your daily life.

PRAYER:

Lord, thank You for Your infinite wisdom and for governing over all.
Help me to trust in Your perfect judgment and to rest in Your Kingdom always. Amen.

DAY 6

THE GREATNESS OF HIS KINGDOM

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"All of your works will thank you, Lord, and your faithful followers will praise you. They will speak of the glory of your kingdom; they will give examples of your power. They will tell about your mighty deeds and about the majesty and glory of your reign. For your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom. You rule throughout all generations. The Lord always keeps his promises; he is gracious in all he does."

— Psalm 145:10–13 (NLT)

REFLECTION:

This psalm exalts the greatness of God's Kingdom: everlasting, faithful, powerful, and full of kindness. God's Kingdom is not just power, but also tenderness, generosity, and closeness. In His Kingdom, every work of God points to His faithfulness, and His authority is manifested not through imposition, but through love. The psalmist reminds us that to speak of the Kingdom is to speak of God's goodness in action. When we testify, worship, or serve, we are showing the world what that Kingdom is like—great and glorious.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

At the end of the day, find a quiet moment to reflect and write down three concrete ways you saw God's goodness and greatness in your surroundings today. How can you be a reflection of these divine characteristics?

PRAYER:

Lord, thank You for Your eternal, great, and kind Kingdom. Help me to reflect Your goodness in every action and word, showing the world Your love in everything I do. Amen.

DAY 7

Bridge City
CHURCH

THE PROMISE: A FIRM AND ENDLESS KINGDOM

Verse of the day:

"For to us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the greatness of his government and peace there will be no end. He will reign on David's throne and over his kingdom, establishing and upholding it with justice and righteousness from that time on and forever. The zeal of the Lord Almighty will accomplish this." — Isaiah 9:6-7 (NIV)

REFLECTION:

Isaiah prophesies the arrival of the Messiah, announcing a Kingdom whose peace will have no end. This Kingdom is not political, it is not temporary, and it does not depend on human consensus; it is eternal and is secured by the power and zeal of the Lord. Every attribute of the Messiah—Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace—describes what the Kingdom He establishes is like. In an unstable world, full of violence, division, and anxiety, the promise of a firm, eternal, and unshakeable Kingdom is a source of hope. Jesus not only brings peace, but He governs with it. His Kingdom does not crumble; it resists everything.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

During the afternoon, dedicate five minutes to reflecting on unstable situations in your life. Write a brief prayer surrendering every concern to the unshakeable King and trust in His eternal peace, so that it may be firmly established in every part of your being.

PRAYER:

God, thank You that Your Kingdom is perfect, firm, and without end;
which was made real through the arrival of Jesus.
Help me to fully trust in Your peace, letting Your rule transform every uncertain situation in my life. Amen.

PART II

GOD'S PLAN TO ESTABLISH HIS KINGDOM ON EARTH

With the arrival of Jesus, the Kingdom of God ceased to be a distant promise and became a present reality. The Gospels reveal that Jesus not only preached about the Kingdom, but that He is the very embodiment of that government. We will study the words of Jesus here on earth, His life, death, and resurrection. Let us see the fulfillment of this divine plan, which inaugurates a new era of authority, power, and grace that transforms the world.

DAY 8

THE KINGDOM HAS COME NEAR

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"In those days John the Baptist came, preaching in the wilderness of Judea and saying, «Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.»"

— Matthew 3:1-2 (NIV)

REFLECTION:

John the Baptist announces the message that would mark the beginning of Jesus' ministry: "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near." This shows that the arrival of the Kingdom requires a human response: repentance, which means a change of mind and heart. The Kingdom does not arrive through tradition, but through transformation. God was inaugurating a new stage in history: the entrance of the King into the world. The message remains relevant: the Kingdom draws near every time we submit our lives to God.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

During your breakfast, identify an area of your life where you need a change of perspective and direction. Dedicate five minutes to repenting and aligning your heart with God.

PRAYER:

Lord, open my heart to receive Your Kingdom today.
Help me to respond with obedience and transformation, allowing Your rule to transform every decision I make. Amen.

DAY 9

THE GOOD NEWS OF THE KINGDOM

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"Later on, after John was arrested, Jesus went into Galilee, where he preached God's Good News. "The time promised by God has come at last!" he announced. "The Kingdom of God is near! Repent of your sins and believe the Good News!"

— Mark 1:14-15 (NLT)

REFLECTION:

Jesus begins His ministry by proclaiming the gospel of the Kingdom: God is acting, drawing near, and restoring. The Kingdom is not a threat, but good news: a new beginning for those who believe. The invitation is clear: repent and believe. The Kingdom is for those who are willing to leave the old behind and receive the new. Every time we embrace the good news of the Kingdom, our lives begin to align with God's design.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

During your midday break, reflect on one piece of "good news" that God has produced in your life since you gave Him your heart. Additionally, write down a concrete commitment to leave behind an old habit that does not reflect the Kingdom.

PRAYER:

Lord, thank You for the good news of the Kingdom;
I want to be a bearer of the gospel message.
Help me to believe and to leave behind what takes me away from Your purpose, living out the renewal of Your Kingdom today. Amen.

DAY 10

THE KINGDOM BRINGS FREEDOM

Verse of the day:

"The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor."... He began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing." — Luke 4:18-19, 21 (NIV)

REFLECTION:

Jesus declares His mission by reading the scroll of the prophet Isaiah: to free, to heal, to restore, and to proclaim the favor of the Lord. This is a description of the impact of the Kingdom of God. Where the Kingdom arrives, chains fall; the blind see; the oppressed are lifted up; the broken are healed. The Kingdom brings freedom not only spiritually, but emotionally and relationally. Jesus did not come to add rules, but to break yokes and bring abundant life. The work of the Kingdom is comprehensive because it transforms the totality of the human being.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

Today, identify a relationship, habit, or thought that oppresses or binds you. Dedicate a few minutes to surrender it to God, asking for His freedom and restoration to be manifested in that area.

PRAYER:

Jesus, free my life from every yoke that prevents me from living fully. Bring healing, restoration, and renewal, manifesting the freedom that the power of Your Kingdom grants me. Amen.

DAY 11

THE KINGDOM AMONG US

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"One day the Pharisees asked Jesus, "When will the Kingdom of God come?" Jesus replied, "The Kingdom of God can't be detected by visible signs. You won't be able to say, 'Here it is!' or 'It's over there!' For the Kingdom of God is already among you.""

— Luke 17:20-21 (NLT)

REFLECTION:

Jesus corrects the expectation of a visible and political Kingdom by affirming that "the Kingdom of God is already among you." This means that the Kingdom is not limited to human structures, but begins in the hearts of those who recognize Jesus as King. The Kingdom advances when Christ reigns in our decisions, relationships, and attitudes. It is invisible to those who look for external signs, but evident in transformed lives. The Kingdom is not a spectacle; it is a spiritual reality manifested in the everyday.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

During a walk or while commuting, reflect on whether Jesus reigns in your daily decisions. Identify a concrete action where you can allow His Kingdom to guide your behavior.

PRAYER:

Jesus, reign in my heart and my decisions. I trust that You are with me. Allow Your Kingdom to manifest in my daily life, guiding every word, action, and thought with Your transformative power. Amen.

DAY 12

A KINGDOM THAT GROWS

Verse of the day:

"He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. Though it is the smallest of all seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds come and perch in its branches." He told them still another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into about sixty pounds of flour until it worked all through the dough.'" — Matthew 13:31-33 (NIV)

REFLECTION:

Jesus compares the Kingdom to a mustard seed and to yeast. Both images reveal that the Kingdom begins small, almost imperceptibly, but its growth is inevitable and evident. Although we sometimes don't see immediate changes, God is working quietly and constantly. The Kingdom does not depend on initial greatness, but on the permanent presence of the King in our lives. The Kingdom grows as we allow God's Word to permeate every area, just as yeast affects all the dough. When we let the Kingdom expand, like the mustard tree, we allow other people to find community and refuge in God and in the new life that only He offers.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

During your break time, reflect on small areas of your life, or on your work as an active church member, areas where God is already working. Write down a concrete step to cooperate with the growth of His Kingdom today.

PRAYER:

Lord, thank You that Your Kingdom grows even in the small things. Help me to cooperate with Your work, allowing Your presence to transform every aspect of my life today and to be a testimony of Christ's power to others. Amen.

DAY 13

WHAT IS THE KINGDOM WORTH?

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"The Kingdom of Heaven is like a treasure that a man discovered hidden in a field. In his excitement, he hid it again and sold everything he owned to get enough money to buy the field. "Again, the Kingdom of Heaven is like a merchant on the lookout for choice pearls. When he discovered a pearl of great value, he sold everything he owned and bought it!" — Matthew 13:44-46 (NLT)

REFLECTION:

Jesus teaches that the Kingdom is so valuable that it is worth giving up everything to obtain it. Both the hidden treasure and the precious pearl illustrate that whoever understands the value of the Kingdom acts with joy and firm resolve. The Kingdom is not about loss, but about exchange: we leave the temporal to receive the eternal. We leave the corruptible to receive the incorruptible. We leave the earthly to receive the heavenly. When we grasp its value, no surrender feels like a sacrifice, but rather a privilege.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

Set aside a specific moment to reflect on an earthly treasure that you have prioritized above the Kingdom. Decide how you can surrender it to God today and then do it.

PRAYER:

God, open my eyes to value Your Kingdom above everything else.
Help me to renounce the temporal and joyfully live out the eternal and invaluable worth that You offer me today. Amen.

DAY 14

THE KINGDOM: OUR MISSION

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"In my former book, Theophilus, I wrote about all that Jesus began to do and to teach until the day he was taken up to heaven, after giving instructions through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen. He appeared to them over a period of forty days and spoke about the kingdom of God. Then they gathered around him and asked him, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?" He said to them: "It is not for you to know the times or dates the Father has set by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem, and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.'" — Acts 1:1-3b, 6-8 (NIV)

REFLECTION:

The Kingdom of God was the central theme of Jesus' life. He dedicated His final teachings to establishing this Kingdom, not as an earthly political entity, but as a spiritual reality and authority that transforms lives. The disciples' question about "restoring" the kingdom demonstrates that they were still thinking in terms of national power. However, Jesus recalibrated their focus. He reminded them that the Kingdom's authority does not reside in the when (God's timing), but in the how it would be manifested: through the power of the Holy Spirit to carry His message of transformation to the whole world. This makes the Kingdom a spiritual mission—both personal and global.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

What does the Kingdom of God mean to you? Where do you need the power of the Spirit to be a witness of the Kingdom? Live intentionally, being an ambassador for Christ in your "Jerusalem," meaning your closest environment.

PRAYER:

Jesus, thank You for instructing us about Your Kingdom while You were physically on earth. Thank You for the Holy Spirit who helps me to be Your faithful witness and to proclaim Your Kingdom wherever You send me. Amen.

PART III

WHAT DOES IT MEAN TO BE PART OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD?

Once established by Christ, the Kingdom of God invites us into a new way of living. The New Testament letters instruct us on the ethics, duties, and holiness of the citizens of this Kingdom, emphasizing our personal and communal transformation. Finally, Revelation gives us a glorious vision of what the Kingdom of God will be like when all is culminated. This section will guide us to understand our present responsibility and our future hope as ambassadors and co-heirs of His Kingdom.

DAY 15

THE VISIBLE KINGDOM

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"For the kingdom of God is not a matter of eating and drinking but of righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit."

— Romans 14:17 (ESV)

REFLECTION:

Paul explains that the Kingdom of God is not about external rules, but about righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit. The Kingdom is manifested in our inner life and in our daily fruits. Righteousness restores relationships, peace keeps our heart steady, and joy strengthens us to move forward ("Do not grieve, for the joy of the Lord is your strength"). When we live guided by the Holy Spirit, the Kingdom becomes visible in how we love, serve, forgive, and speak.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

This afternoon, identify a difficult situation you are facing. Before reacting, dedicate five minutes to pray and decide how to apply righteousness, peace, and joy in your circumstance.

PRAYER:

Holy Spirit, fill my heart with righteousness, peace, and joy.
May my life reflect Your Kingdom in every action, word, and thought, positively impacting those around me. Amen.

DAY 16

AMBASSADORS OF THE KING

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"So we are Christ's ambassadors; God is making his appeal through us. We speak for Christ when we plead, "Come back to God!""

— 2 Corinthians 5:20 (NLT)

REFLECTION:

Paul calls us ambassadors for Christ. This means we represent the King wherever we go. An ambassador does not speak for himself, but for the Kingdom that sent him. Our words, attitudes, and decisions must reflect the heart of the King. God is making His appeal to the world through us. We are His voice, His living letter, His message in motion. This calling is not a burden, but an honor. As Christ's ambassadors, our task is also to lead people to reconciliation with Him. Therefore, by faithfully living the truth of the Kingdom, we plead with people: "Come back to God!"—inviting them to know Him, not only with words, but with a life that demonstrates the goodness and reality of the King we represent.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

Today, throughout your day, look for opportunities to speak words of hope or encouragement that reflect the heart of the King. Do it with intention and love, with the goal of reflecting Christ and inviting others to know Him.

PRAYER:

Lord, help me to be a faithful ambassador of Your Kingdom. May every word and action I take reflect Your love and truth, bringing light to those who do not yet know You. Amen.

DAY 17

PERSEVERANCE AND THE KINGDOM

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"Here is a trustworthy saying: If we died with him, we will also live with him; if we endure, we will also reign with him. If we disown him, he will also disown us;"

— 2 Timothy 2:11-12 (NIV)

REFLECTION:

Paul reminds us of a glorious truth: those who persevere and endure will also reign with Christ. The Kingdom is not only present but future. Our faithfulness today has an eternal reward. Although we face difficulties, nothing is in vain. The apostle says that if we died with Jesus, we will also live with Him. This means we must let go of our old, sinful life to live the new life He gives us. The warning is serious: if we disown Jesus, even by the way we act every day, He will also disown us. God is forming the character of the Kingdom in us, teaching us to persevere with faith and obedience. We will reign with Him because we belong to Him.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

This afternoon, identify a challenge or sin you want to overcome, for which you need to maintain faith. Write a concrete plan for perseverance and action, and pray, asking for the Spirit's strength to remain faithful.

PRAYER:

Jesus, give me strength to persevere and endure in the midst of difficulties.

Help me to be faithful, remembering that my perseverance brings me closer to Your Kingdom and the eternal reward. Amen.

DAY 18

AN UNSHAKEABLE KINGDOM

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"Therefore, since we are receiving a kingdom that cannot be shaken, let us be thankful, and so worship God acceptably with reverence and awe."

— Hebrews 12:28 (NIV)

REFLECTION:

The writer of Hebrews reminds us that we have received a Kingdom that cannot be shaken. We receive this Kingdom through faith in Jesus Christ, who rescues us from the dominion of darkness and transfers us into the Kingdom of His beloved Son. This transfer is an immediate gift from God that transforms our citizenship and our identity. While everything earthly is shaken, the Kingdom remains firm. This truth calls us to live with gratitude, reverence, and confidence. We are not built on shifting sand, but on an eternal rock. Crises, trials, or uncertainties have no power to destroy what God has established in us.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

Today, identify a situation that causes you fear or anxiety. During the day, dedicate ten minutes to writing a prayer that expresses your confidence in the unshakeable Kingdom of God and meditate on its stability.

PRAYER:

Lord, thank You for giving me a Kingdom that nothing can move, threaten, or tear down. Strengthen my confidence, teach me to live with gratitude, and to depend solely on Your firm authority. Amen.

DAY 19

A KINGDOM OF PRIESTS

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"But you are not like that, for you are a chosen people. You are royal priests, a holy nation, God's very own possession. As a result, you can show others the goodness of God, for he called you out of the darkness into his wonderful light."

— 1 Peter 2:9 (NLT)

REFLECTION:

Peter declares that we are a "royal priesthood," called to reflect God's light and mercy. Being part of the Kingdom implies an active identity: we represent God to the world and bring the world before God in prayer. We are not spectators; we are ambassadors. In the Scriptures, the priest serves as a mediator, bringing the offerings and petitions of the people to God, and God's blessing and teachings to the people. In our role as believers, we represent God to the world with our lives and bring the world toward God. He chose us, sanctified us, and sent us to proclaim His wonderful deeds. This identity does not depend on our past, but on the new birth we received in Christ.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

During your midday break, pray for someone who needs to know God. Write them a message, call them, or simply intercede for that person with dedication.

PRAYER:

Father, thank You for calling me to be a priest in Your Kingdom.
Help me to reflect Your light, intercede for others, and be a faithful instrument of Your grace and truth. Amen.

DAY 20

PURCHASED TO REIGN WITH HIM

Bridge City
CHURCH

Verse of the day:

"And they sang a new song, saying, "Worthy are you to take the scroll and to open its seals, for you were slain, and by your blood you ransomed people for God from every tribe and language and people and nation, and you have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they shall reign on the earth."

— Revelation 5:9-10 (ESV)

REFLECTION:

This heavenly song reveals the foundation of our identity in the Kingdom of God: the work of Jesus on the cross. We are not kings and priests by our own merit, social status, or earthly birth, but because we were redeemed (purchased) with His own blood. His sacrifice took us out of the bondage of sin and granted us a royal status. The cross not only saved us, but also enabled us to reign with Him. This royalty is manifested today in the authority we have to live a victorious life and to serve God; knowing that we belong to a purchased community from every nation, and that our destiny is to rule with the Lamb of God.

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

Live today knowing that you were purchased at the incalculable price of Jesus' blood. Your value is not in your accomplishments, or where you come from earthly. Your value comes from Him. Act with the firmness and dignity of someone who has been made a king by the favor of God.

PRAYER:

Lord Jesus Christ, I thank You that with Your precious blood
You redeemed me to God and have made me a king and priest.
Help me to live in a way that honors Your sacrifice. Amen.

DAY 21

WE WILL REIGN WITH HIM FOREVER

Verse of the day:

"No longer will there be a curse upon anything. For the throne of God and of the Lamb will be there, and his servants will worship him. And they will see his face, and his name will be written on their foreheads. And there will be no night there—no need for lamps or sun—for the Lord God will shine on them. And they will reign forever and ever." — Revelation 22:3-5 (NLT)

REFLECTION:

As we close our 21-day study, the final chapter of the Bible in Revelation gives us a hopeful vision of our ultimate destiny in the Kingdom. This passage shows us that the goal is not just to go to heaven, but an eternal and active reign alongside God. The painful things of this world—suffering, darkness, curses—will be gone. The greatest promise is intimacy: we will see His face and be in His constant light for eternity. Our journey on Earth preparing the Kingdom will culminate with endless service and reign, where God Himself will be our source of joy and light. This is the secure future for those who serve Him!

PRACTICAL APPLICATION:

Starting today, live with the encouragement of someone who knows their effort is not in vain, someone who knows there is a victorious end thanks to Jesus' sacrifice on the cross. Faithfulness in your daily tasks prepares your heart for that eternal reign. Be a light here and now, reflecting His joy and His love: reflecting His Kingdom.

PRAYER:

Beloved God, thank You that Your throne will be with me and I will be able to see Your face. Illuminate me today to live according to Your will. I want to be a reflection of Your Kingdom here on earth, and to be able to bring more people closer to Your eternal kingdom. Thank You for Your promise: that with You I will reign forever and ever. Amen.